

Curriculum XXI at Hartwick College: A Flexible Curriculum

While the essential elements of Curriculum XXI are specified, each requirement may be fulfilled by a variety of courses. Below are some examples of specific courses that may fulfill the requirements in each category. A course may be used only once toward Curriculum XXI.

	Curriculum XXI Requirements	Examples of Courses that Fulfill Curriculum XXI Requirements
Continuity	two courses in major works—one treating a period before 1660 (MWE), the other a later period (MWL) one course in creative or performing arts (CPA) one course in Western history (WHS)	Before 1660 (MWE): English Literature I, Classics of Philosophy After 1660 (MWL): African-American Literature, Politics Through Literature Drawing and 2D Design, Creative Writing, Fundamentals of Acting Europe in the 20th Century, Atlantic History, Religious Diversity in America
Interdependence	two courses in social and behavioral analysis in two different departments (SBA) foreign language (LN1, LN2, LN3, GCT) a non-Western or Third World course (NTW)	U.S. Government and Politics, Introduction to Sociology, Economics of Sports, Introduction to Anthropology, Cognitive Psychology, International Relations German, Spanish, and French language and culture courses Buddhism, Worldwide Ceramics, Middle East Politics, Human Rights
Science & Technology	a course in mathematics, logic, or computer use (MLC) a course in chemistry or physics (SCI, LAB) a course in biology or geology (SCI, LAB)	Statistics, Logic, Introduction to Computers, Single Variable Calculus Chemistry in Today's Society, Astronomy, Physics of Everyday Objects Ecology and Environment, Planetology, Meteorology, Principles of Biology
Critical Thinking & Effective Communication	competence in writing a major program a baccalaureate thesis or project	Courses vary based on students' writing level One of 30 majors or an Individual Student Program A major research paper or project in the student's chosen field
Choices	a first-year seminar (FYS) a contemporary issues seminar taken no earlier than January of the junior year (CIS)	Children's Lives, Ebony and Ivory, Masculinities, Theatre in New York City Unruly Women, Understanding Cancer, Origins of War and Peace, Travels to the Third World, Philosophy, Race &amp; Gender, Novel into Film, Globalization