

Native American History Month 2019

Veterans Recognition and Family Stories

November 2: USCTI's Student Mini-Conference Connection to Family and Veterans

9 a.m., to 7 p.m., Eaton Lounge, Bresee Hall, The Pluralism Associates League for Students (PALS), Black Student Association (BSA), Society of Sisters United/Brothers United (SOSU/BU) and the Office of Intercultural Affairs cosponsor this event on local history and family research.

November 6 to November 22: Native American Photo Gallery

Student Experience, 4th floor, Dewar Union, Office of Intercultural Affairs showcase images of Native Americans as a wall display.

November 6: "Rumble," First Nations Film Screening and Discussion

6 p.m., The Yager Museum of Art & Culture, Yager Hall. This film features interviews with prominent musicians and scholars to paint a picture of strong Native influence on popular music.

November 9: Boston Bus Trip for Cultural and Social Appreciation

8 a.m. to 12 a.m., Hartwick College Activities Board (HCAB) provides a trip to enjoy and appreciate the contribution of veterans, cultural sites and entertainment.

November 11: Honoring Veterans

12 p.m. to 2 p.m., HCAB, Outside the Commons, writing letters to veterans honoring their service.

November 12: Honoring Veterans

7:30 p.m., Lambros Arena, Binder PE Center, Veterans and their families are invited to attend the Men's Basketball Game, where we will take a few minutes to honor them while cheering on the Hawks.

November 12: "Harriet Tubman," Film Screening

8 p.m., Black Student Alliance (BSA) sponsors a trip to the Oneonta Theatre for the showing of the movie, "Harriet Tubman," that depicts the heroine's multiple roles as preserver of the family, soldier, and women's activist. (Register: Huntleymigp@hartwick.edu).

November 13: "Makwa Jiimaan: Deep Water Deep Roots," First Nations Film Screening and Discussion

6 p.m., The Yager Museum of Art & Culture, Yager Hall. This film is directed by award-winning filmmaker Derrick LaMere. He uses the building of a canoe to ruminate on how land and culture hold together the past, present, and the future.

November 19: "A Good Day to Die," First Nations Film Screening and Discussion

6 p.m., The Yager Museum of Art & Culture, Yager Hall. This film tells the story of the American Indian Movement (AIM) through the life of Dennis Banks, one of the co-founders and most prominent organizers.

November 20: Dinner with Delta Omega Epsilon and Sigma Omega Epsilon

6 p.m., to 7 p.m., TBA. This welcome dinner is for the newest Greeks at Hartwick.

November 21: Thanksgiving Dinner in the Commons

4 p.m., Aramark hosts the annual Thanksgiving Dinner.

HARTWICK
COLLEGE

est. 1797