

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH 2020

Valiant Women of the Vote

Schedule of Events

Women's Literature

Yager Hall, The Stevens-German Library
March Book Display

March 4: Walking Through Women's History & Game Night

6 p.m. to 8 p.m., Yager Museum of Art & Culture, an interactive team event identifying role models, co-sponsored by BSA, HIA, PALS SOSU/BU, Women's Center, and the Office of Intercultural Affairs.

March 6: O'Connor Foundation Lecture

7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m., Anderson Theatre, endowed lecture for the Hartwick community, public, staff, and students.

March 10: Self-Care

3 p.m. to 5 p.m., Farrington Room, Dewar, join members of Hartwick Counseling, HIA, and the Women's Center at this interactive event to focus on self-care, yoga, crystal healing, ceramics, and herbalism.

March 12: Jesuit Support Network for Women, Immigration, and the Mexican Border

6 p.m. to 7 p.m., Yager Museum, Provost William Ehmann will lead a film and discussion about border control, a group that served migrants, and asylum seekers at Nogales, Mexico.

March 22: Women's History Month Nominations Due

5 p.m., Office of Intercultural Affairs, 410 Dewar, submit your nomination of a student, staff member, or faculty member to be recognized for contributions to the Hartwick College community. (A nomination with a supporting statement can be emailed to Matthewsh@hartwick.edu).

March 24: Exhibit "With Renewed Courage: Works by Women in the Museum"

10 a.m. opening, hosted by the Yager Museum.

March 25: The Impact of Family Research Upon the Self Esteem of Female Descendants of Military Ancestors

6 p.m. to 7 p.m., Yager Museum, the Harriet Tubman Mentoring Project, and the Office of Intercultural Affairs, co-host guest presenter Anita Hopson (Reserve a seat at Matthewsh@hartwick.edu).

March 26: Women's History Month Awards and Reception

4 p.m. to 6 p.m., Chesebro Room, Dewar, join President Margaret L. Drugovich celebrating WHM. (Reserve a seat at Matthewsh@hartwick.edu).

